KEYNOTES

*Dr. Douglas
Marlowe*

Douglas Marlowe is Senior Scientific Consultant at the National Association of Drug Courts Professionals, Senior Science and Policy Advisor for Alcohol Monitoring Systems, and a faculty member at the Global Institute for Forensic Research. Previously he was Chief of Science, Law and Policy for NADCP and Director of Law and Ethics Research at the Treatment Research Institute. He also served as Adjunct Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. A lawyer and clinical psychologist, Dr. Marlowe focused on the impact of coercion in substance use disorder treatment, effects of drug courts and other rehabilitation programs for persons with substance use disorders involved in the justice system, and behavioral treatment for persons with substance use disorders and criminal involvement. He has published over 175 articles, monographs, books, and book chapters on correctional rehabilitation, forensic psychology, and treatment of substance use disorders.

Dr. Edward Latessa

Edward Latessa received his PhD from Ohio State University and is Director and Professor of the School of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Latessa has published over 170 works in the area of criminal justice, corrections, and juvenile justice. He is co-author of eight books including What Works (and Doesn't) in Reducing Recidivism, Corrections in the Community, and Corrections in America. Professor Latessa has directed over 195 funded research projects including studies of day reporting centers, juvenile justice programs, drug courts, prison programs, intensive supervision programs, halfway houses, and drug programs. He and his staff have also assessed over 1,000 correctional programs throughout the United States, and he has provided assistance and workshops in forty-eight states. Dr. Latessa served as President of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (1989-90). He has also received numerous awards including: Marguerite Q. Warren and Ted B. Palmer Differential Intervention Award presented by the Division of Corrections and Sentencing of the American Society of Criminology (2010), the Bruce Smith Award for outstanding contributions to criminal justice by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (2010), the Outstanding Achievement Award by the National Juvenile Justice Court Services Association (2007), the August Vollmer Award from the American Society of Criminology (2004), the Margaret Mead Award for dedicated service to the causes of social justice and humanitarian advancement by the International Community Corrections Association (2001), the Peter P. Lejins Award for Research from the American Correctional Association (1999); ACJS Fellow Award (1998); and the ACJS Founders Award (1992). In 2013 he was identified as one of the most innovative people in criminal justice by a national survey conducted by the Center for Court Innovation in partnership with the Bureau of Justice Assistance and the U.S. Department of Justice.
