

MISSION DRIVEN MEMBER POWERED

MISSION

The Ohio Community Corrections Association provides to member community corrections service providers the opportunity for advocacy and professional development, which enhances their ability to reduce repeat criminal offending.

OCCA MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Ohio Community Corrections Association is agency-based and the work of the Association is member-powered. There are 10 member agencies representing 10 halfway houses and five community based correctional facilities for a total of 15 voting members of the OCCA. These members operate 38 facilities serving communities across Ohio. Leaders from OCCA member agencies meet annually to outline OCCA goals and objectives for the coming year. The membership convenes on the second Tuesday of each month to conduct the business of the Association including committee work, provide guidance to the OCCA staff, Executive and other committees, and meet with key stakeholders.
